SATURDAY, JANUARY 20, 1750. [N°. 304.]

The Third Chapter of TEAR'EM the Son of GORE'AM, in the Apocripha.

AND it came to paſs, in thoſe Days of the great King, even King Aurelius, there lived in the Land of Staff a Man named Gore'am; but his Soul was not as the King's Soul, for he gainſayed the Words of the King, and he was a Chief among the Sons of Jacob.

2. Now behold, it was told the King by the Pelemites, Knoweſt thou not a Man called Gore'am, how he, having an hardened Heart, oppoſed the Will of the King thy Father.

3. How his Beaſt was prepared to join the raſh Multitude of Jacob, even thine Enemies; — and the King anſwered and ſaid, I know it well.—Now the Pelemites were Brothers, who, like the Sons of Zeruia, vexed the King's Heart.

4. And the Elder ſpake and ſaid, O King live for ever, knoweſt thou that Gore'am is in League with the turbulent Hearts of thy Kingdoms, and ſeeketh our Ruin, even thy Ruin, O King Aurelius.

5. But there aroſe a Man from his State of Retirement, and ſaid, O King, as thy Soul liveth, Gore'am is a Man of goodly Perſonage, and greatly powerful in Speech; —call him to thy Court; then he ſhall forſake the Folly of the Houſe of Jacob.

6. So Gore'am was called to the King's Court; and he brought with him his Sons and Daughters, even many of his Kindred; but the Multitude followed him not.

7. And Gore'am joined himſelf with the Pelemites; and his Firſt-born, even the Firſt-born of Gore'am, was raiſed on high among the People; and they ſhouted and cried Tear'em for ever.

8. Now the King, knowing his goodly Perſon, and the Uprightneſs of his Heart, made him one of the ſeven wiſe Maſters of the Seas, to be a Ruler and Governor of the Ships of his Kingdom.

9. And juſt before this Time, the War ceaſed between King Aurelius and his Enemies; for there was a great Dearth in their Land.

10. Now when there was an End of the War, about this Time appeared certain vagrant Sojourners from the Land of the Philiſtines, and they ſaid, Come, let us be merry, and partake of the Fruits of the Land of Goat'am; for the Lord, even the Lord Tear'em, upholdeth us;—— and they did ſo.

11. So they began to ſhew their Sports and Diverſifements before the Lord Tear'em, and before many honourable Men and many honourable Women, who uncovered their Nakedneſs before them.

12. And certain Men aroſe and ſaid, Why are we troubled with theſe Strangers; and they conſulted together, ſaying, Come let us join together to remove theſe Vagrants. ——and they did ſo.

13. Then the Lord, even the Lord Tear'em, was in great Wrath, and he aroſe and ſtood up, having a Sword girded upon his Thigh, and he ſpake unto them and ſaid, O ye Sons of Belial! whence come ye? and the People were not appeaſed.

14 So that he boiled with Rage, and drew his tremendous Sword, ſaying many bitter Words, and the Plague was ſtayed.

15. After this Time the Men of the Weſt communed among themſelves, ſaying, Who is this Lord Tear'em, that ſpeaketh ſuch bitter Words in our Ears, as tho' he ſtood not in our Stead before the King and his mighty Men.

16. And who is the Son of Gore'am, that he ſhould ſet his Face againſt the People? Has he not been trained in the Ways of his Father, who cauſed the Men of Staff, which is called Cabul, to ſin?

17. Now, as the King, even the good King Aurelius, liveth, this Man ſhall no longer ſpeak our Yea and our Nay before the Rulers of the People.

18. Becauſe he openly ſetteth his Hand to the Heels of the Vagrants, and liſteth them up over the People.

19. And he knoweth not the Land of Ophir, nor even even the Coaſts of the Red Sea; and wherefore is this Man put over the Ships?

20. And the People ſhouted with a great Shout, and all the Multitude ſaid Amen.

21. So there aroſe a Man, who pleaſed the People, even Vandepotijah, the Son of Hogan, the Son of Mogan, who came from the Country of the Flamans, which is called the Land of the Wars.

22. And the People ſaid, This is the Man that ſhall bear our Sufferings to the King, inſtead of the Lord Tear'em; for he uſed not his Endeavours to ſave the Man who overthrew the Houſe of Lewdneſs.

23. And the Lord Tear'em declared upon his Honour, that which the People declared was not true; ſo the People appointed another, even Vandepotijah, to be their Servant.

24. About this Time there was much Noiſe and Tumult and grievous Swearing in the Weſt, and the Slaughtermen played their Muſic before Vandepotijah, and the Sound of their Muſic was as the ſounding Braſs, and the tinckling Cimbals.

25. And Bribery and Corruption abounded, inſomuch that even the Highways and Hedges were compelled to come in.

26. The mighty Ruſſeliel, a nominal Scribe of the Court, iſſued out a Decree, and it came to the Ears of the People, both ſmall and great; ſo that many were forced to ſerve Tear'em, for Fear of being turned out of the Habitations of their Fathers.——Now Ruſſeliel was Tear'em's Brother.

27. And Vandepotijah feared not; for the King's Son, and the Lords, and the good Men, were his Friends: ſo he gave neither Silver nor Gold into the People, for they delighted in the Man whom they had ſet on high; but Tear'em gave much among the Sons of Belial inhabiting the low Places upon the River.

28. So the good Men of the Land ſpake for Vandepotijah, and the Evil and Corrupted ſpake for Tear'em.

29. And Tear'em was ſore preſſed by the Men on the high Grounds, even the Place that beareth the King's Name, and all that cried out, Let the King live for ever — and the King was delighted therewith; for he well knew Vandepotijah had taken the Daughter of his Servant to Wife.

30. And Tear'em was grieved to the Heart by the Men of the Slaughter-Houſes, who ſpake againſt him with many Mouths, and exalted Vandepotijah with a loud Voice, even like the Roaring of Bulls; for they were fierce Men.

31. And Ruſſeliel and Gore'am pitied him much, even the Lord Tear'em; and they ſpoke in the Ears of the Pelemites, Are not theſe Sons of Turbulence your People, and wherefore reſtrain you them not?

32. Have we not been gathered unto you by Compact, and upheld you againſt the Counſels of the mighty Achitophel, when ye were in Danger of being driven from before the King.

33. As the Lord liveth, before whom we ſtand, if the Lord Tear'em be overthrown by the Voice of the People, the Man who is full of Wiſdom, even the great Achitophel, is upon you.

34. For know ye not that the Counſel he counſelleth is with the King, yea and with the King's Son, like the Oracle of Heaven.

35. And the Pelemites, tho' they loved not Tear'em and his Friends; yet they brought many People to ſpeak for him, for they feared the Cunning of Achitophel.

36. And they hired Men of Belial to ſwear for the Lord Tear'em in the Face of the People; but it availed them not, for the Multitude, even their own Tribes, roſe up againſt them.

37. And after Ruſſeliel and Gore'am had opened their own Treaſures, and the Pelemites the Treaſures of the King, yet none but the Edomites would touch thereof, and they touched thereof in abundance.

38. So that they bought Garments for their naked Bodies, and put Sandals beneath the Soles of their Feet, and ſhouted the Lord Tear'em!

39. But their Voice was like the Voice of Deſpair, and Gore'am ſickened thereupon for Anguiſh of Mind.

40. And Tear'em ſaid to Gore'am, Ariſe, my Father, and be not grieved, for there is ſtill a Way opened unto us.

41. Behold the King's Treaſury is yet full, and are not the Pelemites our Allies, and the Recorder of the Names of the People may be ſtill led into Temptation.

42. For is he not a Man of the Law? —— and who, among them, can reſiſt a Talent, and the powerful Duſt of Ophir?

43. And Ruſſeliel lifted up his Voice, and ſaid, Be of good Cheer, my Father, for this Matter ſhall come before the great Aſſembly of the People, for well ye wot there be many who are not averſe to Shekels among them.

44. For has not Selim, which is called Splayfoot, a Voice in the Aſſembly? and lo! the Man who is given to change governs there with a Countenance of Braſs.

45. Did not they forſake the Side of their Maſter, and open his Councils to the Pelemites, and are they not in their Hands?

46. Wherefore then let it not be ſaid in the Land of Staff, which is called Cabul, that Gore'am, who forſook the Houſe of Jacob to hold the King's Seals, deſpaired with the Deſpairings of a Woman, leſt they ſhould rejoice thereat, and laugh thy Son, even the Lord Tear'em, to Scorn.

47. And the Words of Ruffeliel and Tear'em were pleasing to the Soul of Gore'am, so that he rose from his Bed, and appeared comforted to the People —— but he was sick at Heart.

48. Now the Rest of the Acts of Tear'em, the Son of Gore'am, and of Gore'am the Father of Tear'em, and of Ruffeliel the Sine cure, and the foolish Men of his House,

49. May they not be found written among the Chronicles of the Lords of Goat'am, by the Hand of the Man whose Heart aboundeth with the Milk of Human Kindness, even he that formerly followed the House of Jacob.

LONDON.

We are well assured, that the Earl of Hindford, formerly his Britannic Majesty's Ambassador at the Russian Court, was expected at the Court of Turin on the 8th Inst. and that he will be there for some considerable time before he returns to London.

An Order is issued out, appointing the 15th of March next for the Peers of Scotland to meet at Holyrood-house in Edinburgh, to elect a Peer of Scotland into Parliament, in the room of John Earl of Crauford, deceased.

We hear a Petition of the Inhabitants of Westminster was presented to the Hon. House of Commons on Wednesday last, for a Bill for the more easy and speedy Recovery of Small Debts.

The Conge d'Elire is preparing to pass the Great Seal, recommending the Hon. and Rev. Dr. Cornwallis to be elected into the See of Litchfield and Coventry, in the room of Dr. Smalbrooke, deceased.

The University of Aberdeen hath conferred the Degree of Doctor in Divinity on the Rev. James Chalmers, Rector of Lamarsh and Wickham, St. Paul's in Essex, formerly a Member of their own Body, and Batchelor of Laws in Cambridge, a Gentleman of eminent Piety and Learning.

'Tis said a Company of English Hussars will be raised, mounted and accoutred as they are abroad.

'Tis said the Manufacture of Plate-Glass is brought to such Perfection at Rochelle in France, that they already undersell the English, which must greatly affect that Manufacture here that once obtained us such Fame in foreign Countries.

On Monday two Women were committed to Wood-street Compter, on the Oath of a Man in the Poultry-Compter, for being concerned in the Murder of a Poulterer some Months since.

Some Officers belonging to the Court having been over-officious to attend on a certain foreign Minister, it is ordered that no particular Deference be paid to any Ambassador for the future there.

We are informed there is a Letter in Town from Capt. Sutherland, dated at Nairn, after he had left the Ship Hercules in a Harbour in Aberdeenshire; so that the Account of his being cast away in that Ship must be a Mistake.

By Letters from Dublin we are informed, that John Patterson, a Scalemaker, had produced before the Dublin Society, an Artificial Tree made of Iron, furnished with Fruit and Branches for Candles, fit to stand on a Defart Table; for which the Society gave him a handsome Premium.

On Friday last as a Gentleman was travelling by Longford, the Windsor Road, he was attacked by two Highwaymen, who robbed him of his Watch and Money, with which they made off; but the Gentleman making a Hue and Cry, the Villains were immediately followed by Mr. Hurst, Master of the Admiralty-Coffee-house, near Charing-Cross, and another Gentleman, who overtook them near the Powder-mills, where one of the Villains shot Mr. Hurst in the Body, of which Wound he is since dead. But the other Fellow was taken and carried before a Magistrate at Hounslow, who committed him on Saturday to Newgate.

We are informed that the Earl of Pembroke made his Will the Day before he died, and among other Acts of Goodness, rewarded all his Servants; having entertained an Opinion he should not live long. His Lordship was taken in the Morning coming down Stairs with a Pain in his Breast and Shortness of Breath; but at Dinner was seemingly well, and eat as usual; was some Time after taken ill, and died instantly in his Chamber, without the least Groan or Convulsion. One of his Brothers being by attempted to bleed him, but without Effect. His Lordship's Corpse has been opened, and the Cause of his Death assigned to the Over-Fatness of his Intestines, which obstructed their Operations.

'Tis said a Bishoprick will be established in the West Indies, the better to transact the great Business of the Plantations.

We have Advice from Paris, that the French Court, on the representations of the Earl of Albermarle, had immediately suppressed a scandalous Libel reflecting on his Britannick Majesty and the English Nation, published there.

'Tis said Sir James Lowther will be made a Peer, by the Stile and Title of Lord Whitehaven.

We hear that the Right Hon. the Earl of Rothes is appointed Colonel of the Regiment of Scots Grey Dragoons, late the Earl of Crausurd's.

And General Cholmondeley is appointed Colonel of the Regiment of Dragoons that was the Earl of Rothes's.

Lord George Sackville, as Colonel of the Regiment of Horse in Ireland, in the room of General Cholmondeley.

And Sir John Whiteford, Bart. who was Lieutenant-Colonel of the Earl of Rothes Regiment, succeeds Lord George Sackville, as Colonel of a Regiment of Foot:

And Lieutenant-Colonel Charles Whiteford, late of Cochran's Marines, succeeds his Brother as Lieutenant Colonel of Cholmondeley's Dragoons.

Monday Morning the new Fish Market near Westminster Bridge was opened, in the Presence of several of the Commissioners of the said Bridge, Notice being given of it to the Market People by ringing of a Bell fix'd up at the Stairs Foot adjoining to the River, and in a few Minutes the same was plentifully stock'd with all Sorts of Fish, from a great Number of Boats which came there or that Purpose which bore a high Price.

By Letters from Tiverton in the County of Devon we have Advice, that there hath been lately great Disorders and several Skirmishes between the Wool Combers and Weavers in that Town, on Account of the Merchants introducing Irish Worsted, which has caused a general Stand in that Business; and we are assured, that the Riot Act has been read by the Civil Magistrate, and the Military Power called in to prevent the Mischief which was likely to ensue by the Disturbances of the Parties concerned.

Wednesday Evening two Gentlemen coming along Kingsland Road, were met by two Villains who robbed them of their Watches and Money, to the Amount of 20 l. and upwards; and then told them if they were met by any others, to tell them they were met by Robin Hood, and to let them pass free.

Tuesday Morning about Two o'Clock as Mr. Beard, belonging to the Theatre in Drury-lane, was going home, his Chair was stopt in Drury-lane, by four or five Fellows, who took from him his Watch and Money, but did not otherwise treat him ill.

On Sunday Night several Persons were taken at a House in the Minories, charged by one of their Accomplices with divers Robberies, and were Monday committed to the two Compters by the sitting Alderman for further Examination.

A few Days ago a well dress'd Man, who pretended to be a Mate of an Indiaman, went to a publick House at Stratford, and after Staying some Time, said he was taken very ill, and desired an Apothecary might be sent for, and also a Person to make his Will, being persuaded he should die: he was attended by both accordingly; and as the Mistress of the House expressed a Concern, and took great Care of him, in his Will he left her seventy Pounds, and six Pound to the Drawer, for his diligent Attendance of him: This so blinded the People, that on Sunday Night last he easily found an Opportunity of robbing the House of Money and other Things, with which he made off.

Last Friday some Persons at Islington were so indiscreet as to give a poor Man, who was lurking about the Town, a Pint of Geneva, which he drank off, and soon after went into a Cowkeeper's Barn, near the Red-lion, where he died

They write from Newcastle, that on the 4th Instant, about one in the Afternoon, the Ship of Capt. Lampro, bound from Newcastle to Leigh, with Goods, was cast away on the Rocks near Blythe, call'd the Sow and Pigs. Most of the Goods were damaged, or carried away by the Country People; but the Captain and Crew saved themselves That Day Fortnight the same Vessel sunk in Tyne River but was weighed up.

Wednesday the Sessions began at the Old Baily, when 19 Prisoners were tried:

Fourteen of whom were cast for Transportation and five Acquitted.

Thursday 11 Prisoners were tried, two of whom were capitally convicted. viz.

Six were cast for Transportation; and two Acquitted.

From the Paris A-la-main, Jan. 19.

The Sier Coignard, who is not only his Majesty's Printer but likewise to the French Academy, has promised to bestow a Prize on such a Student as is a Member of the Academy, of this City, and shall produce the most Polite Discourse in Latin, on such particular Subject as the said University shall think proper to pitch upon, and which is to be determined at their next public Convention in the Month of August; at which Time they are to declare out all the Prizes in general that the said University then propose to confer on the most deserving.

The King of Sardinia has issued an Edict, by which 'tis enacted, that all the English Vessels under 200 Tons Burthen, and all Dutch Vessels under 400, that shall unload Goods in the Ports of the County of Nice, namely, Villa-Franca, Nice, and St. Hospice, shall pay a Duty of Entry for them of Two per Cent.

We hear that in about eight Days will be published, addressed to the worthy Electors of Westminster, an historical Print in two Plates, representing the whole Life and Character, Birth, Parentage, and Education, Ingratitude and Prostitution, Politics and Dissimulation, Servility and Meanness, &c. &c. of ESQUIRE DISMAL, formerly Surgeon in Pallmall, but now one of the Managers of the French Players, and Agent in Chief for a certain Election. Price 1 s. each Plate. Printed for Mademoiselle la Verité and to be had at the several Pamphlet Shops of London and Westminster.

We are informed that Mrs Keith's Corpse was remov'd from her Husband's House in May-Fair, the Middle of October last, to an Apothecary's in South Audley-Street, where she lies in a Room hung with Mourning, and is to continue there 'till Mr. Keith can attend her Funeral.—— The Way to Mr. Keith's Chapel is thro' Piccadilly, by End of St. James's Street, and down Clarges-Street, and turn on the Left Hand. The Marriages (together with a Licence on a Five Shilling Stamp, and Certificate) are carried on for a Guinea as usual, any Time 'till Four in the Afternoon, by another regular Clergyman, at Mr. Keith's Little Chapel in May-Fair, near Hyde-Park Corner, opposite the great Chapel, and within Ten Yards of it.—— There is a Porch at the Door, like a Country-Church Porch.

COUNTRY NEWS.

Bristol, Jan. 15. The Phœnix, Capt. Carberry, arrived last Wednesday, has brought in with him four Algerine Sailors, Prisoners: —— It seems on Christmas Eve he was taken by an Algerine Corsair of 40 Guns, full of Men, off the Burlings (or Rock of Lisbon,) under the Pretence that his Mediterranean Pass was not a good one.—— The Algerine Commander was so great a Man, that he demanded the Pass to be delivered to him by Capt. Carberry's own Hands, with his Shoes off and upon the Knee; tho' he before had sent off his Chief Mate and four Men in a Boat in Obedience to the Command of bringing to, &c. who were all detained on board the Corsair.

The Phœnix was ordered for Algiers, after an Officer, six other Turks, and Capt. Carberry were put on board: But in the Passage, Capt. Carberry, with three English Sailors and a Boy, found Means to recover the Ship, after flinging the Turkish Officer and another Turk over-board. This was occasioned by the Turks first beginning an Assault to take away the Englishmens Lives; Capt. Carberry has several Wounds; and the Englishman at Helm was stabbed in the Back with a large Knife but 'tis hoped not mortally. After this Accident, they were furnished by a New England Ship with a Blunderbuss, and some Iron Shakles, with which they chained the Turks. Capt. Carberry has attested, that the Turkish Captain of the 40 did alter his Pass; tho' it was a lawful one from the Lords of the Admiralty.

The Captain's Deposition of this Affair has been taken before the Mayor, and an Account of it sent to the Government.

Newcastle, Jan. 13. Last Monday Morning a Boy, about eight Years old, (whose Parents live near Gibside) on his Way to School, through Wickham Common, passed a Man with a Woman sitting on his knee, who ask'd which Way he was going? The Lad answer'd, The School: On which the Fellow catched hold of the Boy, carried him into an adjacent Hollow, and stripped him of all his Cloathes except his Breeches and Shoes, threatning to cut his Throat from Ear to Ear, if he cried out. As soon as the Boy was at Liberty, he crept thro' a Thorn Hedge, and run to his Father, who was at Work at a little Distance, who alarmed the Neighbourhood, pursued and took the Villain at a little Distance from the Place where he had committed the Robbery. He was Yesterday sent to Durham Goal by the Rev. Mr. Lamb, a Justice of the Peace. The Fellow pretended to be dumb when before the Justice; but the Boy put him in Mind of the Speech he made when he threatned his Life. This Man and the above-mentioned Woman are said to belong to a Gang, well known by the Name of Faws, who for many Years have much infested the Northern Countries.

SCOTLAND.

Edinburgh, Jan 9. Yesterday George Craighead, the pretended Minister, was brought to the Bar, when upon some Informality in the Libel, and his Majesty's Advocate consenting, the Diet was deserted; but upon a new Information, he was taken into Custody at the Bar, and recommitted, in order to stand Trial upon a new Indictment.

Edinburgh, Jan. 11. They write from Inverneſs, that Thomas Finlater, a Soldier, condemned at laſt Circuit Court there, for committing a Rape on a young Girl of 9 Years old, and Kenneth M'Donald, alias Kyle, alſo condemn'd for being acceſſary with Elizabeth M'Kenzie, to the Murder of —— Murchinſon, her Huſband, were hanged there, purſuant to their Sentence, upon the 29th ult. that they both denied the Crimes for which they both denied the Crimes for which they ſuffered, but that M'Donald owned his having Criminal Converſation with Murchinſon's Wife.

TURKY.

Algiers, Dec. 4, O. S. Notwithſtanding the Extraordinary Preparations which ſome Chriſtian Powers have made of late, and which ſeem to be deſigned againſt us we live here in full Security, tho' the wiſe Precautions taken by our Regency to baffle any Attemps that may be made upon us. Our Port is ſo well planted with Batteries, that we dare engage to beat off any Fleet that may venture to injnlt us. The Dey has conſiderably augmented and improved our Fortifications of the City, and we have on Foot an numerous and well diſciplin'd Militia, who only wiſh for Opportunities to ſignalize themſelves. On the other Hand, we have poſitive aſſurances, that the Grand Signor will not ſuffer us to be attacked with Impunity; his Highneſs having reſolved to ſend us, in caſe of need, powerful Succours, both by Sea and Land. This advantageous Situalion of our Affairs contributes not a little to make our Corſairs in high ſpirits, and ſcarce a Week paſſes without bringing ſome good Prize into our Harbour. It is but a few Days ſince we received a very rich French Ship, taken off Cape St. Vincent, by one of our Privateers, and tho' the French Conſul begged and prayed, hector'd and bluſtered, the Dey declared the Veſſel a legal Prize, becauſe ſhe had a large Quantity of warlike Stores on Board for the Spaniards, whom we already look upon as our declared Enemies.

Dr. R. NELSON, being well known to have made the Cure of Seminal and Genital Imbecilities his chief Study and Practice for above thirty Years, does recommend his moſt Noble Cleanſing and Strengthning ELIXIR, which thouſands of People have experienced, to be the only BALSAMICK HEALING RESTORING Medicine in the World,

For Gleets and Weakneſſes,

THE Bane of Virility in the one Sex, and Deſtroyer of Fertility in the other, whether from ill cur'd Venereal Infections (than which nothing is more common) or from inordinate Coition, or ſelf-Pollution (that curſed School Wickedneſs, which ſpoils all our Youth, by nipping their Manhood in the Bud) or from involuntary Emiſſions a Nights in the Sleep, or in the Day Time upon Stool or with the Urine, or from Falls, Blows, Strains, Wrenches, or the like, which drain, and dry up the Seminals, and wither, as it were the Generative Faculties, cauſing Impotency in Men, the Fluor Albus, and Barrenneſs in Women, (or but a weakly, ſickly Offspring if any) and in the long Run (by impoveriſhing the Blood and Spirits) Melancholy, Vapours, Decays of Nature, and Conſumptions.

No Medicine can be more pleaſant to take, nor any Thing upon Earth more effectual for the Purpoſe; for let the Imbecility be ever ſo great, or of ever ſo long ſtanding, and be either in the Parts Spermatick Veſſels, or Back, with Pain, or without, it certainly Cures, by reviving and enriching the Blood and Spirits; comforting, nouriſhing, and replenifhing the Reins and Seminals; and ſtrengthning, and reſtoring the Genital Parts in both Sexes, how much ſoever weakned, rendred cold, or deadned, and bringing them to their natural Force, Warmth, and Vigour, by thickening and fertilizing the Seed, which before was thin, wateriſh, or yellowiſh, and conſequently inſufficient, either for Procreation or the Act of it.

All Diſorders of the Urine, as Difficulty in the making or retaining it, or its ſcalding, ſmarting, or ſour ſlimy, thready, greaſy or ſtinking, whether from Gravel, Stone, Strangury, or a Venereal Cauſe are likewiſe ſpeedily cured by it, and the Water made to be held as ſtrongly, and yet brought away as freely, eaſily, full ſtream'd, and clear as ever.

Price 5s. a Bottle. Prepared by the abovemid Author, and ſold only ſeal'd up with Directions how to take it) at Mr. Corbett's Bookſeller, at Addiſon's Head, oppoſite St. Dunſtan's Church Fleet-ſtreet and by Henry Cook, under the Royal-Exchange, aſking only for a 5s. Bottle of Elixir.

The True Cordial QUINTESSENCE of VIPERS, the moſt Noble and Grand Preparation in the whole Materia Medica, for the real, ſubſtantial Cure of Impotency in Men, and Barrenneſs in Women; and is vaſtly preferable to Viper Wine, or any other Preparation of Vipers whatever, as being replete with the full and whole Virtues of them.

A Few Drops of it only, gives ſuch a generous Warmth, and ſo exceedingly delights the Vital and Animal Spirits, Senſes, and Nerves, as ſoon to ſhew what it will do, upon a little Continuance of it; for it not only promotes, and prompts to a Deſire, but alſo furniſhes proper Matter, for the Support and Eſtabliſhment of a true laſting Inclination and Power.

By this Means it anſwers the End as well of Food as Phyſick; nor is there any thing in Nature beſides, that can in that Reſpect come up to it conſidering that it univerſally nouriſhes and reſtores in all the Declenſions of Deſire and Vigour, without the leaſt forcing the Veſſels or ſtimulating the Parts, as moſt other Medicines for theſe Purpoſes do: And tho' it be a Maxim in Phyſick, that SINE CERERE & BACCHO FRIGET VENUS, that is, in itſelf, is ſo ſufficiently nutritious as to want no Aſſiſtance that Way; not but it muſt be allowed, that good Eating and Drinking with it, cannot but in ſome Degree at leaſt as an Auxiliary contribute to its Efficacy.

Nor does it only furniſh Matter and create Deſire, but alſo true Power (as it braces up and corroborates the Teſtes) and gives an elaſtick Spring to the Muſculi Erectores Penis in Men, and corrects, clarifies and comforts the Uterus, or Womb in Women, the Luxuriancy of the former, and the Foulneſs, Coldneſs, or Obſtruction of the latter, being more the Cauſe of Impotency or Infertility, in either Sex, and Indifferency or Sterility in the other than any Thing elſe beſides; and that it is Balſamick, and greatly reſtorative, is confirmed by long Experience, and we have many Inſtances in Phyſical Writings, of Perſons arriving to a healthful old Age, as well as recover'd from deplorable Decays and Weakneſſes, by a continued Uſe of the common Preparations of Vipers, which the Quinteſſence, by being of vaſtly more Efficacy, brings but in a Quarter of the Time, and with the Tenth Part of the Quantity

Thoſe who but once try it, will ſo pleaſantly experience its nutritive quickening Properties, in exhilerating the Heart, reviving the Spirits, comforting the Vitals circulating the Juice, and recreating and renovating, as it were the whole Man, that they will never be without it; for it is ſuch a preſent Help, in Time of Need, as that on the taking then but a Doſe or two more of it extraordinary, it will ſo inſtantaneouſly animate the dull inactive Spirits, and rouze up and actuate the ſluggiſh enfeebled Faculties, in both Sexes, as to excite and capacitate where it could hardly be expected, and at the ſame Time ſeldom fails to render that conjugal Intercourſe Pleaſick, Price Half a Guinea the Bottle.

Mr. Weſt, Goldſmith, who us'd to ſell theſe Bottles, being lately dead it is now Sold only by his Son-in-Law, Mr. Johnſon, Mercer, at the Seven Stars in Vere Street, Clare-Market, ſealed up with Directions (for any Meſſenger) upon asking for only a Bottle of Quinteſſence.

The only sure and infallible Cure for that reigning Disease the SCURVY, and all Scorbutick Humours, tho' arrived to the highest or most inveterate Degree, or of ever so many Years standing, and that without a sensible Evacuation, or the least Purging, which, by an unaccountable Mistake, is generally advised, altho' always found rather to encrease and confirm the Scurvy than cure it.

By the so much fam'd and most pleasant Chymical DROPS.

WHICH, without the least Trouble, Confinement, or any Disorder whatever, doat once strike at the true Cause of the Scurvy, and entirely destroy it, and all Scorbutick Humors and Effects, Root and Branch, so as never to return again; as many Thousands of both Sexes have experienced, and to all who take them in Three Days Time are convinced; for they almost instantly alter the morbid State of the Juices, purify the Blood, sweeten all the Fluids, cleanse them from Impurities, and directly clear the whole Habit from all Spots, Blotches, black and blue Marks, Itchings, foul Eruptions or Breakings out, Weakness of the Limbs, languid Heaviness of the whole Body, wandering Pains, Weakness of the Back, and all the vast Variety of Symptoms by which the Scurvy imitates and often lies conceal'd under the Appearance of the Rheumatism, and many other Distempers.

And for strengthening the Stomach, immediately creating a good Appetite, causing a regular and easy Digestion of Food, and curing all windy Effects and Disorders of the first Passages, (whence proceed Head-Achs, Vapours, and other Indispositions) no Bitters, nor any other Medicine upon Earth can compare with them; inasmuch that besides infallibly curing the Scurvy, in all its Shapes and Appearances they assuredly and directly cure the Green-Sickness in Virgins, Worms of all Kinds, in Young or Old, and almost all other Chronick Diseases, which are chiefly occasioned by Indigestion and flatulent Crudities in the Stomach and Bowels) and certainly prevent Fevers, Agues, and other acute Illnesses.

They are wonderfully Cordial and Restorative, strengthen and warm the whole Machine, and as soon as taken, make the Patient pleasantly lightsome, brisk and vigorous to Admiration, and are good for all Sorts of Persons, to preserve as well as to procure a sound and healthful State of Body.

But the great Reputation these so much fam'd and most pleasant Chymical DROPS have so universally gain'd among Persons of Eminence, for their suddenly and infallibly curing the Scurvy and all Scorbutick Humors, and other Chronick Diseases, in such an easy and agreeable Manner, have occasioned many to imitate them, some under the same, and others under other Names; be careful therefore not to be deceived, but be sure to have the Right, which, by the Author's special Appointment, are to be had, only at the Gentlewoman's at the two blue Posts in Haydon Yard in the Minories, at 3s. 6d. a Bottle, with Directions.

Concerning Gleets and Seminal Weaknesses of all Kinds

ALL judicious Physicians and Surgeons allow, that nothing is more difficult to cure, even by the very best Method and Medicines in usual Practice, than Stubborn Gleets and Seminal Weaknesses whether occasion'd by too severe purging for Venereal Injuries, violent Strains, Pollutions, or any other Cause whatever; and that they are dangerous in their Consequences, as well as difficult to cure, is as certain since they exceedingly weaken the Generative Faculties, infeeble the whole Nervous System, often bring on Hectick Heats, a Tabes Dorsalis, or Consumption of the Back, or an Atrophy or Nervous Consumption which frequently terminate in Death itself.

All such therefore who have the Misfortune to be troubled with Old Stubborn Gleets, Seminal Effusions, Involuntary Emissions, excessive Nocturnal Pollutions, or any Weakness of the Kidneys, Ureters, or Bladder, the Diabetes, Incontinency of Urine, or Difficulty of holding their Water, would doubtless be glad to meet with a certain, safe and speedy Cure, which they most assuredly may, by the taking only a small Quantity of a transcendent Balsamick Restrictive Electuary, now published for a general Good, after having for many Years in private Practice been experienced never once to fail of perfectly curing the most stubborn Gleets known, in a few Days, without Difficulty or Trouble; as also all other Weaknesses of the Back, Reins, Seminal Vessels and Urinary Passages, which it almost instantly cures, bringing to rights and restoring all those Parts and Passages to their natural Tone and pristine Vigour, in a very extraordinary Manner, and by taking a few Doses of it only.

This transcendent Balsamick Restrictive Electuary is neither disagreeable to take, nor occasions the least Disorder, but is a wonderful Restorative in all Weakness and Decay of Constitution of any Kind, and particularly strengthens the Back, Reins, Seminal and Urinary Vessels, to an immense Degree, insomuch that to any Debility of them, one Dose of it does more than ten of any other Remedy yet found out; and all Persons fatigued with Gleets or Seminal Weaknesses of any Sort, or Weakness of the Urinary Vessels, who take it, will in three Days time find it to every effectual, that they will be most agreeably surprised at it.

When a Medicine will infallibly accomplish such a safe, speedy and perfect Cure of such difficult Maladies, as Gleets and Seminal Weaknesses are, as this Great Remedy truly and directly will, even after all other Means and Medicines have been try'd in vain; too much cannot be said in Praise of it, and this all who ever took it for any of the above-mention'd Purposes, have readily declared.

The Price is but 6s. a Pot, altho' for its absolute Efficacy, one Pot alone being sufficient in most Cases to accomplish a Cure, worth ten time as much, and is ready sealed up, with a Book of Instructions, which whomsoever carefully reads will be compleat Master of his own Case, and perfectly know, when the Gleet or Weakness he is afflicted with proceeds a Venereal Injury, whether all the Malignity of the foul Disease is entirely extirpated or not.

Note, This fam'd Balsamic Electuary is now, by the Author's Appointment, to be had only at Mr. Eglinton's, (Mr. Radford being deceased) at the Golden Pair of Spectacles, against the East-End of the New Church in the Strand, London. Ask only for a 6s. Pot of Balsamic Electuary. No Letters answer'd, unless Post-paid.

For the VENEREAL DISEASE.

THE shorteſt, ſafe, and regular Cure, this Day in the World, from the ſlighteſt Infection to the moſt inveterate Degree of it, by a Medicine as pleaſant to take, and as eaſy in its Operation as it is effectual in its Cure; ſo that the unfortunate Patient gets ſuddenly and ſurprizingly well, without Diſtaſte to his Palate, the leaſt Diſorder of Body, or any Confinement whatever. This is that great Remedy, now ſo well known and long experienced to be truly infallible, and is the Grand ANTI-SIPHYLICON that Radcliffe and Garth uſed to ſay would totally extirpate the Venereal Diſeaſe from the Face of the Earth, were it but univerſally known, and properly taken. Freſh Infections, call'd Claps, with all their cruel attendant Symptoms, it preſently cures; and if taken in Time, even prevents their taking Place. It is a ſafe, gentle, and pleaſant Family Purge, even for Children as well as grown Perſons, in all Caſes where Purging is neceſſary; nor can the deepeſt Scurvy, Rheumatiſm, Gout, Evil, or Leproſy, ſtand before it, but are pleaſantly cured and thoroughly extirpated by it, as well as the higheſt and moſt inveterate State of the confirmed Venereal Diſeaſe; which, with all its moſt raging Symptoms, it ſoon eradicates, reſtoring Health, Strength, and Vigor to the Body. Thoſe who once take it, will never have Recourſe to any Thing elſe. One Pot in moſt Caſes is ſufficient for a Cure.

Price 6s. a Pot, ſealed up with a Book of Inſtructions, by which all Perſons may fully underſtand their own Condition, and certainly know when, and when not, the Venereal Poiſon is rooted out of their Bodies. Note, This Grand Anti Siphylicon is now, by the Author's Appointment, to be had only at Mr. Eglinton's (Mr. Radford being deceaſed) at the Golden Pair of Spectacles againſt the Eaſt-End of the New Church in the Strand, London. Ask only for a Six Shilling Pot for the Scurvy. No Letters anſwered unleſs Poſt-paid.

The So-much Fam'd HYPO-DROPS.

WHICH in a few Days infallibly cure Hypochondriack Melancholy in Men, and the Vapours in Women, ſo as never to return again, be they ever ſo ſevere, or of many Years ſtanding, and even after all other Remedies have prov'd ineffectual, and that by immediately ſtriking at the very Root or true Cauſe, as well as remedying the Effects, of thoſe perplexing Maladies and all their Variety of Symptoms, by which they mimick, by Turns, almoſt all the Diſeaſes poor Mortals are afflicted with, and have their Riſe from a depraved Appetite, vicious Ferment in the Stomach, and Indigeſtion of Food, whence proceed Crudities and flatulent or windy Diſorders in the firſt Paſſages, ill Fumes, ſour Belchings, Cholick, and Uneaſineſs in the Bowels, which Crudities offend the Nerves, and, by Conſent of Parts, affect the Head, and produce ſometimes Giddineſs, Dimneſs of Sight, confuſed Thoughts, pertinacious Watchings, troubleſome Sleep, Frights, groundleſs Fears, and the deepeſt Melancholy, with direful Views and terrible Apprehenſions; another times, Fits, ſtarting Heats, Reachings, Faintneſs, Lowneſs and Sinking of Spirits and Palpitation of the Heart, Startings, Tremblings and Twitchings in the Limbs and other Parts, with many convulſive Diſorders, ſharp Pains, fix'd or wandering, Pain and Weakneſs in the Back, and other almoſt innumerable and grievous Symptoms, which miſerably afflict vaſt Numbers of both Sexes.

All which Symptoms in their ſharpeſt Paroxyſms, theſe ſo much fam'd and moſt pleaſant Drops, (which are Chymically prepar'd from the moſt valuable Specificks in the Mineral, Vegetable, and Animal Kingdoms, and exalted to the higheſt Degree of Perfection poſſible) inſtantly quell, and at the ſame time annihilate their real Cauſe, directly bringing the Stomach into right Order, creating a good Appetite, reſtifying the Digeſtion, occaſioning laudable Chyle, and, of courſe, good Blood, Plenty of calm, free, and chearful Spirits, a regular Circulation of all the Fluids, and Strength of Nerves; ſo that both Cauſe and Effects of Melancholy and Vapours, are thoroughly removed by them, almoſt on the Spot, as the many Thouſands of both Sexes they have perfectly cured, evince.

Whoever takes them for three Days only, will be ſenſible they are abſolutely to be depended upon for an effectual and laſting Cure, and certain it is, that no Medicine upon Earth can equal them; be careful therefore to have the right Drops, which are to be had only at Mrs. Holt's, at the Croſs-Keys and Star below the Royal Exchange, in Cornhill, at 3s. 6d. a Bottle, with Directions, at large.

For the Immediate Cure of BARRENNESS in WOMEN tho' of many Years Continuance, and proceeding from what Cauſe ſoever,

And alſo of IMPOTENCY in MEN, however occaſion'd, or of ever ſo long Standing,

The Famous and Ineſtimable PROLIFICK ELIXIR,

The higheſt, richeſt, and moſt powerful Cordial in Nature, is recommended,

BEING the only true and Infallible Cure for Barrenneſs in Women, and Impotency in Men in the Univerſe, and which at once accompliſhes without the leaſt Trouble, even after all other Remedies have fail'd, as Thouſands have Experienced, and chearly promoting the chearful Circle of the Blood and Juices, raiſing all the Fluids from their languid depreſſed State, to one more florid and ſparkling, opening all Obſtructions, fortifying the Nerves, encreaſing the Animal Spirits, reſtoring a Juvenile Bloom, and evidently replenifhing the criſpy Fibres of the whole Habit, with a generous Warmth and balmy Moiſture, and thereby invigorating it to ſuch a Degree as not to be imagin'd, but by thoſe who have experienced how exceedingly and ſuddenly it renovates, recruits and powerfully ſtrengthens all the Animal Faculties, and Generative Powers in both Sexes. It inforces a bright lively Diſpoſition banniſhes Melancholy, and inſpires Mirth and Gladneſs of Heart beyond Expreſſion.

Abundance of Ladies, who for ſeveral Years were deem'd incurable Barren, have after twice taking it, conceived and became Fruitful, and great Numbers of Gentlemen, who by fatal living or otherwiſe, had render'd themſelves incapable of Procreation, have ſoon been enabled by it to propagate their Species, inſomuch, that very many illuſtrious Families, who, for want of Children, were almoſt inconſolable, are now bleſt with happy Iſſue, and are (under Providence) indebted to this Great Medicine for their Heirs.

It reſtifies all Diſorders of the Stomach, creates an Appetite, procures a good Digeſtion, and in all Weakneſs of Body, or Decay of Conſtitution of any Kind, is a moſt infallible Reſtorative, and even ſeems to keep back the Effects of Old Age it ſelf.

It is to be taken but a few Drops at a Time, has a very fine Flavour, is pleaſant to the Palate, Cordial to the Stomach, and can be had only at the Gentlewoman's at the Two Blue Poſts in Haydon Yard in the Minories at 5s. a Bottle, with Directions.

To Perſons of either Sex,
Afflicted with any Species of the PALSY, or other Nervous Decays.

NEVER were NERVOUS DISEASES, PALSIES, and PARALYTICK DISORDERS ſo frequent as of late they have been, nor have the uſual Remedies been found adequate to thoſe pertinacious Diſtempers: This occaſioned a Phyſician, who employed his Thoughts much concerning them, to adapt a Medicine, a Sovereign Elixir peculiar to, and effectual for, the Palſy, and all other Nervous Complaints now reigning, which, after he had experienced on vaſt Numbers of Perſons of both Sexes, and always with ſurprizing Succeſs even ſo as infallibly to cure by it the Palſy, and all Paralytick Effects and Nervous Diſorders, he permitted it to be made publick for a general Good, that ſo thoſe labouring under theſe miſerable Ailments might know where to meet with a ſafe and moſt certain Cure, which it accompliſhes in ſo ſhort a Time, and with ſuch Eaſe and Pleaſure (a few Drops of it being a Doſe, highly agreeable to the Palate, and comforting to the Stomach and Bowels) as is almoſt incredible to relate.

But the taking one Bottle of it only demonſtrates its prodigious Efficacy to every one, and the Patients ſoon finds all Numbneſs, Deadneſs, and ſhaking, or Reſolution of the Nerves, as well as all convulſive, cramp-like, or painful Contractions of them, vaniſh and return no more, and this, though theſe Diſeaſes have been of many Years ſtanding, and whether occaſioned by long Illneſs, faſt Living, hard drinking, or any other Cauſe; for it performs all that can be wiſhed for in Nervous Caſes, creates an Appetite, expells Wind, reſtifies the Digeſtion, occaſions laudable Chyle, attennuates the Blood and Juices, cauſes a free and regular Circulation of 'em thro' the Capillary Veſſels, revives and increaſes the Spirits, warms, comforts, ſtrengthens, and replenifhes the Brain and whole Nervous Syſtem, hence the Sinews, Tendons, Ligaments, and all the enfeebled Parts are invigorated, the Limbs reſtored to their priſtine Steadineſs and Strength, and the Palſy and all Paralitick Diſorders and Nervous Decays ſuddenly cured by it, to the Admiration of the Patients themſelves, and all about them.

This ſovereign and incomparable Elixir is permitted to be ſold only at Mrs. Holt's, at the Croſs Keys and Star below the Royal Exchange in Cornhill, London, at 3s. 6d. a Bottle, with printed Directions at large.
